

Welcome to INCENTIV - Intellectual Property Information Centre

Regardless of whether your business is based on the development or application of new technologies, on the supply of new and distinctive products or services to customers, or whether your business is creativity, for the lasting business success in modern business environment a good management of one's own intellectual property or a legitimate use of somebody else's property is essential. To be well informed of intellectual property system, and to utilise information from national, regional and worldwide databases on the registered intellectual property, is a prerequisite for a successful management of intellectual property. The professionals at the State Intellectual Property Office and INCENTIV services are therefore here for you to provide assistance.

Our Activities

INCENTIV is a public information-service centre of the State Intellectual Property Office (SIPO), providing professional information assistance to all the interested persons who want to protect, utilise or manage intellectual property effectively.

Our Services

Professional Information on Intellectual Property Protection

At INCENTIV you will find free of charge professional information regarding the way how to protect your own intellectual property, how to legitimately utilise somebody else's rights, or how to avoid infringing thereof. You are welcome to visit us at INCENTIV or contact us by phone or e-mail.

Services based on Databases Searches for the Registered Intellectual Property

Accurate and up-to-date information contained in national, regional and worldwide databases on the registered intellectual property is a basis for a right decision concerning intellectual property protection, or using somebody else's right for the purpose of your business.

The search services offered by INCENTIV are based on the access to the most relevant collections of documents, searched by the qualified and experienced SIPO professionals against the payment of favourable fees. Search services of domestic, regional and international databases on the registered patents, trademarks and industrial designs are available.

The result of such a service is a search report containing relevant information based on the search criterion set up in compliance with your requirements. You are welcome to discuss and order a search service at INCENTIV, or contact us by phone, facsimile or e-mail.

On-line Databases on Intellectual Property in Croatia

To professionals in the field of intellectual property and users having experience in searching and data interpreting on the registered intellectual property, free of charge on-line databases to search registered industrial property in the territory of Croatia are available through our information services. You are welcome to make searches at INCENTIV, or at your home or at your office.

Specialized Library and Reading-room

At the INCENTIV library you will find the most comprehensive selection of professional literature and journals in the field of intellectual property on one spot. You are welcome to use the library collections in our reading-room.

Education on Intellectual Property

If you are interested in developing your knowledge on intellectual property protection or organizing education for your employees or associates in the field of intellectual property protection, we will organise for you a relevant training program, either at INCENTIV or at your workplace.

Our Experts

Services of INCENTIV are provided not only by its own experts and skilled personnel but also by other relevant experts of the State Intellectual Property Office. Their competence is based on their education at the relevant intellectual property offices worldwide, and their practical experience acquired in intellectual property protection procedures.

Where we Can not Provide Assistance

At INCENTIV we provide professional information services only; for legal representation services concerning industrial property registration procedure and legal services in case of industrial property rights infringement you should contact the registered authorised representatives or attorneys.
